

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

This chapter presents some conclusions and suggestions dealing with results obtained through the data analysis.

5.1. Conclusions

Based on the data obtained, the writer finds homophone word, and homograph words, in the Amanuban Dialect of Uab Meto dialect which consist of the same type of spelling and category and have similarities in terms of spelling but different pronunciation.

The writer also provides example sentence for all homophone words,, and homograph, with an explanation of the meanings of each example sentences. For all homophone, and homograph in the Amanuban Dialect of Uab Meto taken from all the conversation sentences in everyday life.

5.2. Suggestions

Based on the findings and discussion above the writer presents some suggestions as the application of research result for English students as the teacher candidate, readers and next researcher. These are the suggestions

1. For the English students and the next researcher, the writer suggest That they have learn about the homophone on the Amanuban Dialect of Uab Meto
2. For the readers, the writer suggests that they can improve their understanding about homophone and the type of homograph because it can be beneficial to understand what the writer means.

3. Young generation in the Nekamese village subdistrict Kie Regency have to take care of local language as one the wealth of their culture that must be preserved.
4. The witer also expects that the result of this study will be useful for student who want to study about the homophone and the type of homophone, especially in the Amanuban Dialect of Uab Meto.