CHAPTER V

RESEARCH CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter presents conclusion from this study and suggestion for everyone who is directly encountered with code mixing.

5.1 Conclusion

This study observed utterances which contain code mixing from Deddy Courbuzier in Im-possible Metro TV YouTube channel. This study aimed to find out form of code mixing Deddy Courbuzier used in his utterances at Im-possible Metro TV YouTube channel. Based on the analysis of Deddy Courbuzier Utterances in Im possible Metro TV YouTube channel explained inprevious chapter, the researcher presents the conclusions of the study as follows:

The result of analysis shows that code mixing is frequently u t t e r e d b y Deddy Courbuzier in his utterances from Im possible Metro TV YouTube channel. There are 38 data code mixing, from 38 data of code mixing, he used insertion code mixing the most in his utterances. There are 28 data form were insertion code mixing being used. Another form is alternation code mixing with 10 data and congruent lexicalization has no data. Those types are including different form of code mixing classified by Suwito (1958).

5.2 Suggestions

From the result of the research, there are still many possibilities for further research regarding code mixing topic in the future. Since this research only analyzes type used according to relevant theories, the researcher suggests for those who are interested in this topic to analyze impact of using code mixing toward their attitude and perception about the code mixing.

There are many possibilities to take sample of Indonesian– English code mixing research and not only inspiration from of Deddy Courbuzier in Im possible Metro TV YouTube channel but also from another media such as radio, magazine, advertisement, reality shows, social media, even classrooms and many more. Thus there will be some variations in code mixing research in the future.