

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1. Conclusion

The conclusion of this study were drawn based on the finding during the research and based on the findings the writer concluded that:

1. There are eight translation methods available in the english-indonesia subtitle of Wednesday movie, namely: 1). Word-for-word translation, 2). Literal translation, 3). Faithful translation, 4). Semantic translation, 5). Adaptation translation, 6). Free translation, 7). Idiomatic translation, 8). Communicative translation. Apart from that, there are also two translation methods which are used to translate a text.

2. Subtitle of Wednesday movie can be understood because the translation results show that the translator translates based on the content and adapts it to understanding of the target language through sentences or words that are often used by the target language.

5.2. Suggestion

Translating requires a special focus for a translator because a translator does not only translate the words but the translator must understand the general things and culture that exist in both language. The result of the analysis and findings in this study make the author want to suggest that future research who are interested in conducting the same research related to translation methods can further examine the accuracy of a translation result
