

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

5.1 Conclusion

Based on the results of research conducted by researcher on the novel The Rainbow Troops by Andrea Hirata, the researcher found five intrinsic elements, namely: character, setting, theme, plot, subject matter. The intrinsic elements in the novel are very constructive for the reader. All these elements are interconnected with one another So the rainbow troops novel is a complete work. The rainbow troops novel has benefits for readers. these benefits, after reading the novel The Rainbow Troops, readers are more active in learning, readers motivated to dream and achieve the dreams you dream of. Besides that, Readers also get knowledge from the novel The Rainbow Troops Andrea Hirata. Based on the explanation above, it can be concluded that the novel The Rainbow Troops by Andrea Hirata is very influential on the reader is positive to the reader, which can motivate the reader in a more direction good to gain knowledge

5.2 Suggestions

In making this research, the author has tried to do her best Possible. However, the writer admit that this research is very far from existence perfect. Maybe there are still many weaknesses in both grammar, sentences, explanations, analysis, or other important aspects of these research. Useful input and criticism from every reader is expected finish and make. One way to analyse the novel is with an intrinsic approach. Here, analysing the plot is to discover what the story tells and to find each detail of the problems that occur in the story. When the plot has analysed, it is easier to find theme.