

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter the writer present conclusion and suggestions about The Use of Smart Box Media in Teaching Synonyms and Antonyms to Improve Students' Vocabulary at SMA Kristen 1 Kupang.

5.1 Conclusion

After conducting research, the researcher would like to briefly present her conclusions regarding increasing students' vocabulary mastery by using the smart box media for eleventh grade at SMA Kristen 1 Kupang.

The application of smart box media really helps to increase the vocabulary of eleventh grade at SMA Kristen 1 Kupang. The advantage of using the smart box media is that improves students' vocabulary and memory regarding the material provided, especially their enthusiastic, interesting and enjoyable in learning English and students' understanding.

The increase in student test scores shows that by using the smart box, students have good vocabulary memorization. Based on the results obtained in chapter IV, the author believes that teaching vocabulary using the smart box media can improve student achievement.

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the conclusions above, the writer provides several suggestions to English teachers and prospective researchers who want to use the smart box media in the teaching and learning process:

1. For English teachers, because teaching vocabulary to students is difficult, teachers must find techniques, methods or media that are effective and interesting so that students do not get bored in the learning process. Teachers can use the smart box media because it provides effective and fast results.
2. For students, students must increase their vocabulary if they want to improve their English, with good and correct techniques students can improve their English skills.
3. The writer hopes that future researchers can improve this research with different material because this research was conducted on students who in fact still lack English vocabulary and it is hoped that this article will be useful and become a reference for further research.