Responden penelitian terdiri atas tokoh adat, aparat pemerintah desa, orang tua, dan generasi muda. data dianalisis melalui tahapan reduksi data, penyajian data, dan penarikan kesimpulan, hasil penelitian menunjukkan bahwa tingkat pemahaman generasi muda terhadap nilai-nilai budaya dalam rumah adat Sabu masih tergolong rendah. Sebagian besar responden mengetahui bentuk fisik rumah adat, namun belum memahami makna simbolik dan nilai-nilai budaya yang terkandung di dalamnya, seperti nilai gotong royong, religiusitas, keharmonisan dengan alam, serta penghormatan kepada leluhur. faktor penyebabnya antara lain kurangnya peran keluarga dan tokoh adat dalam pewarisan budaya, serta minimnya pembelajaran budaya lokal di sekolah. Meskipun demikian, sikap generasi muda terhadap pelestarian budaya tergolong positif. mereka menyadari pentingnya melestarikan rumah adat sebagai identitas budaya daerah dan bersedia berpartisipasi dalam kegiatan budaya jika diberikan dukungan. oleh karena itu, diperlukan kerja sama antara pemerintah, sekolah, dan masyarakat untuk memperkuat pendidikan budaya lokal dan mendorong.

Kata Kunci: pemahaman generasi muda, nilai-nilai budaya, rumah adat sabu, pelestarian Budaya.

This study aims to examine the level of understanding among young people regarding the cultural values contained in the traditional Sabu house (Rumah Adat Sabu) in Molie Village, Hawu Mehara District, Sabu Raijua regency. the Sabu traditional house is a cultural heritage that holds deep social, religious, and philosophical meanings; however, in the midst of modernization, these values have begun to shift and are less understood by the younger generation. the research method used is descriptive qualitative, with data collected through interviews and documentation. respondents consisted of traditional leaders, local government officials, parents, and young people. data analysis was conducted through data reduction, data presentation, and conclusion drawing.

The results show that the level of understanding among young people about the cultural values of the Sabu traditional house is still relatively low. Most respondents are aware of the physical form of the traditional house, but they do not fully understand the symbolic meanings and cultural values within it, such as the values of mutual cooperation, religiosity, harmony with nature, and respect for ancestors.

the contributing factors include the lack of family and traditional leaders' roles in cultural transmission and the limited inclusion of local cultural education in schools. Nevertheless, the attitude of young people toward cultural preservation is generally positive. They realize the importance of preserving traditional houses as a symbol of cultural identity and are willing to participate in cultural activities if given support. there fore, collaboration between the government, schools, and communities is needed to strengthen local cultural education and encourage youth involvement in preserving the Sabu traditionalhouse.
