

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

5.1. Conclusion

Based on the findings and discussion, it can be concluded that a song is a work of art that combines melody (music) and lyrics (words) to convey certain feelings, stories, or messages, which are usually sung by humans. In this song is an emotional dialog between two people who once loved each other, but now live in emotional “all too well” from each other.

There is a frustration of not understanding each other. describes a silent but poignant breakup not because of hatred, but because of too many unspoken things. The function and meaning of this song Taylor Swift uses her songs as a medium to express Feelings of love, loss, heartbreak, and hope Inner struggles and personal emotions

5.2. Suggestions

1. For Music Listeners

This research is useful for music listeners because it helps them understand the meaning of songs more deeply and recognize the language used in Taylor swift songs

2. For Readers

This research aims to increase the awareness and ability of readers and listeners in identifying and understanding various types of figurative language that appear in song lyrics.

3. For Future Researchers

This research is expected to be a valuable reference and provide insight for future researchers who want to analyze existing language on other perspectives or in different contexts